

CEO [SII'O] (THE; M AND F; PLURAL: CEOS)

- 1 ABBREVIATION FOR: CONNECTING EXCELLENT OBSERVER
- 2 HOSPITABLE OPERATIONAL FAMILY MEMBER
- 3 SOMEBODY WHO GLADLY TAKES CARE OF OTHERS

Are you in love with the countryside, but also looking for international mingling? Then our Giethoorn hospitality family wants you as CEO, now to convince you!

De Dames van de Jonge offers a home base for (international) guests who seek a deeper experience and connection, with the benefits of a four-star hotel in the most inspiring destination in the world.

Hierarchy? De Dames are rebels... With our hospitable family, everyone takes the helm and scrubs the deck. That is why we are looking for CEOs. Every 'family member at De Dames' radiates a demonstrable personal responsibility, a characteristic of our company. So there will be relied on the specific knowledge and skill of every other family member. In short, cooperation!

As a CEO (Connecting Excellent Observer), paired with a proactive mentality, are you the face of our family and bridge to nature all around us, but not just that. Together with our other family members are you the driving force who makes lodging, eating, drinking and experiencing the area an unforgettable experience. A part of your work includes sharing advice, giving questions a deeper answer, or giving directions to explore the region.

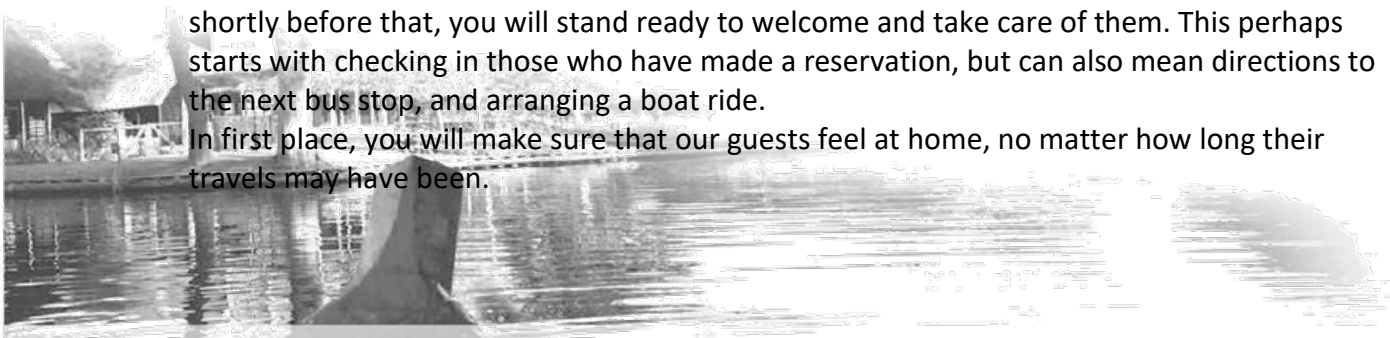

Furthermore, you will be the one to serve guests a locally brewed 'Uut Giethoorn' beer who just returned from such an adventure. In essence: You are responsible for the creation of a comfortable atmosphere for our guests; a home far from home, or perhaps nearby, where we share each other's cultures to hopefully become friends and learn from one another. In this, the experience is paramount, with you as the one to build true Gieterse bridges!

As a CEO at De Dames, you are flexible, all-round and communicatively capable. In direct terms, it is your task to welcome guests, check them in and out, and communicate while doing so. This may mean directions to the nearest bus stop, or maybe to help prepare a healthy meal using our locally cultivated products. Even when the sun does not shine, you are the one who keeps their stay a warm one. So, your mission is as follows: You connect with people and make sure that they (temporarily) leave our family again with a smile on their faces.

Homestay and Hotel Rooms

Here you are primarily the face of our family. As soon as they cross the threshold, and even shortly before that, you will stand ready to welcome and take care of them. This perhaps starts with checking in those who have made a reservation, but can also mean directions to the next bus stop, and arranging a boat ride.

In first place, you will make sure that our guests feel at home, no matter how long their travels may have been.

Bar and Terrace

The bar is your domain. Here, you are our barman or -woman, but also our Uut Giethoorn beer expert. Social contact with guests is your thing and you make sure that everyone feels heard as well as taken care of.

In short, you are the voice of the family, and you neglect nobody.

Gastroma Geesje Restaurant

In our restaurant, Gastroma Geesje, we serve local harvests with special attention for nature and environment. We let ourselves be inspired by the Weerribben-Wieden and in this way combine Dutch cuisine with true Giethoorn creativity. Our love for nature and our amazing agrarian companies is key, and it reflects in our dishes.

Meetings, Study Tours & Events

Thanks to your steadfast focus and awareness, you make sure that our guests feel at home. You make sure in advance that the space is ready, and offer thoughtful service throughout the day. With members of a study tour, the same goes for you.

What do we offer you?

- A salary that starts with a gross €1950.00 a month, based on a fulltime workweek (38 hours)
- 5 weeks of leave to relax and rewind, also based on a fulltime workweek
- The chance to wear your own clothes to work and show off your personal style
- Exciting on-the-job training opportunities with Giethoorn Academy
- A hospitality family-run company with family members from over the whole world to meet, learn from, and grow with
- A home where we celebrate achievements and surpassed milestones throughout the year

We adore family members who:

- Stay healthy during work
- Love building an unforgettable stay and experience, where people can feel at home and get connected with others, Giethoorn, National Park Weerribben-Wieden and the region
- Want to get the best out of themselves and others
- Are ready to improve and renew the characteristics of hospitality, by offering service in a personalised and creative way
- Are authentically friendly, proactive and open
- Love nature and feel at home on the countryside
- Don't mind taking things into their own hands every now and then, when cleaning, doing the dishes, or otherwise helping out in and around the kitchen, hotel rooms, and terrace

A Part of the Giethoorn Family; a Part of something Bigger

We are more than just another 4-star hotel. We are a homestay that offers a second home, a place to feel alive and welcome in. We believe in taking time to share. We work hard, but play just as hard. We love Giethoorn, going on boat rides, and relaxing in nature. We celebrate each milestone that we achieve together and put our family first (considering guests to be family as well).

Join an international team of driven, proactive and fun-having family who look out for each other, and share one thing: A passion for connecting people from over the whole world, through nature and hospitality.

Do you not quite meet every characteristic, but do you still think that you would be a great addition to our family? There is only one way to find out! Send Gabriella a text using the number below and come meet our family. Together, we keep a safe and comfortable workspace where every family member can continue to grow and develop into the best version of themselves.
